

Official Rules and Regulations for the Parkview LAN Party (PLAN) hosted by the Computer Club of WMU

By registering and/or participating in PLAN, all attendees agree to be bound by the following rules and regulations. Any violations of the rules below will/can be met by a fine, dismissal from PLAN and/or future Computer Club events, or a call placed to the Department of Public Safety (DPS). We (The Computer Club of Western Michigan University) reserve the right to dismiss you or have you removed from the premises without refund. The appropriate repercussion will be selected by members and/or specifically officers of the Computer Club of Western Michigan University.

Section I: General Event Rules and Regulations

1. Respect: First and foremost be respectful! Everybody is here to have a good time! Mind your manners and be courteous.
2. Theft/Vandalism/Destruction of Property: Many resources are provided by the Computer Club of Western Michigan University and the College of Engineering and Applied Sciences for your entertainment. DO NOT steal, hide, vandalize, deface, or destroy any materials, resources or devices that are provided. Failure to comply with this regulation will be met with a fine, dismissal or a report filed with DPS depending upon the severity of the offense.
3. Parking: We (the Computer Club of Western Michigan of University) are not and will not be responsible for consequences resulting in the illegal/incorrect parking of your motor vehicle on the campus of the College of Engineering and Applied Sciences. Parking areas are available and marked by the University.
4. Assault/Violent Behavior or Speech: We (the Computer Club of Western Michigan of University) will not tolerate violent physical or vocal behavior. Offenses will be assessed on a case-by-case basis and dealt with accordingly.
5. Unauthorized Access to Prohibited Areas: PLAN takes place on the weekend and as such much of the engineering campus is shut down and closed. PLAN attendees agree to not gain unauthorized access to rooms, labs and areas that have been closed or locked by the university. Failure to comply may result in dismissal from the premises.
6. Concessions: We (the Computer Club of Western Michigan of University) will supply snacks, food, and drinks for purchase by attendees. Theft of food, drink, etc. or of the money residing in our cash register is prohibited. Attendees are permitted/encouraged to bring their own food and drink.
7. Equipment: Some equipment/devices such as extra cables and console devices will be brought by the Computer Club of Western Michigan University. However, participants are expected to bring their own equipment. THIS MEANS BRING YOUR OWN LAN CABLE. Supplied equipment is limited and distribution is subject to the discretion of the Computer Club of Western Michigan University. If you plan to participate, you'll need your computer and all peripherals needed to play the games you want. Aside from the essentials, you may want to bring a headset with a microphone, in order to use VOIP software to better communicate with team members. It is also advised that you ensure these items work before participating in any tournaments.

Section II: General Tournament Rules and Regulations

1. Sportsmanship: Whether you win or lose, keep it cool. This is a tournament, not everybody is going to win, but everyone can have fun, win or lose.
2. Credibility: We do our best to keep tournaments fair, but this involves help and compliance from our attendees as well. Don't try to sneak a peek at an opponents' screen, and don't have anybody help you gain unfair advantages. If you are caught cheating in any way, you AND your team will be disqualified from the tournament, and possibly from participating in any more events at PLAN.
3. Spectating: Spectators are advised not to interact with attendees participating in the active tournament, except in the case of an emergency. If there are breaks between rounds, spectators may interact with tournament participants during that time.
